New Art Appreciation Classes

We are excited to announce our newest volunteer – Beth Oakes. Beth taught art at Ovilla Christian School where she developed an art history curriculum called HiGASFY; an acronym for “Have I Got a Story for You!”. We have added this curriculum to Friends Place on Thursday mornings at 10:00 am taught by Beth.

Beth's goal is to exercise our members' critical thinking and analytical skills by teaching about famous artists and analyzing beautiful masterpieces. She said “What I have found is I receive as much as I give from the wise members at Friends Place.” And our members have expressed their delight when coming out of the class. To learn more about her art history curriculum, visit her website at www.higasfy.com.

We are so happy to have Beth at Friends Place!
